

Jan-Philipp Beck

CEO of EIT Health

Jan-Philipp Beck is CEO of EIT Health and chairs the organisation's Management Board. He was appointed to the position of CEO on 1 February 2018 from just over two years as EIT Health's COO.

Beck is passionate about transforming healthcare in Europe through partnership and innovation. As CEO, his overarching objective is to support EIT Health's vision of connecting the healthcare needs of European citizens with policy makers and its incredible network of over 140 partners to deliver innovative healthcare solutions that can positively transform healthcare outcomes across Europe.

Beck, a graduate of the Eberhard Karls Universität Tübingen, joined EIT Health from EY and previously Deloitte, where his work involved supporting industry, universities and research organisations with the development and rollout of R&D, innovation projects and related financing concepts. Prior to this, he was Executive Director of the European Youth Parliament, an educational project of the Schwarzkopf-Stiftung in Berlin, where he oversaw the organisation's work connecting over 30,000 young people a year across 34 countries.

He holds an MA in Political Science, Economics and English from Eberhard Karls Universität Tübingen in Germany.
